Aspen's Darkside

The darker stories of Aspen's past make an entertaining hour long evening walk. With tales such as The Jungles of Durant, Murder at the Red Onion, and The Ghosts of the Jerome it has truly been a hit among locals and visitors alike. Written for mature audiences from teenagers on up. A lighter family version is on Fridays at 7pm.

Wednesdays & Fridays at 9pm

Meets at Bentley's at the Wheeler.

Aspen's Past to Present

This tour combines the multiple stories of Aspen's historical figures into a seamless presentation that leaves a deeper understanding and appreciation for what "Aspen" is. Folklore brings the visitor from the Ute Indians, the silver boom, the quiet years, the cultural re-birth, the freak powered 70's, through today on a casual 10 block, 1 ½ hour stroll through historic downtown Aspen.

Mondays & Thursdays 10am

Meets at the Wheeler Opera House Box Office.

Walking with the Dead

A walk through Aspen's first burial ground, the Ute Cemetery, tells the story of the common man of Aspen's early days through the life and death of those buried there. Offered at select times this summer it may also be requested for parties of 5 or more.

Reservations Required.

Advanced Tickets may be purchased at the Wheeler Opera House from 9am-5pm Daily.

All tours are $20 per person.
